The picnic pavilion is located at Sherman Park, which is a Greenway facility. It is close to the Yakima Arboretum, which is not affiliated with the Greenway and is used for educational programs, private bookings and the display of exotic plants and trees. The Arboretum asks for the cooperation of Greenway visitors in these areas:

Parking: park at the Sherman Park or Robertson Landing lots; please do not park along Arboretum Drive or at the Jewett Interpretive Center. Restrooms: please use the restrooms by the animal shelter, facilities at the Arboretum are for use by Arboretum visitors only. Drinking water: please bring your own as water is not available from the Jewett Interpretive Center or other Arboretum facilities. Sound: the Arboretum hosts weddings and tours throughout the week; in order to preserve this pastoral environment, please keep music and noise levels from the picnic area to a minimum.

Visiting the Arboretum: activities prohibited on Arboretum grounds include picnicking, walking pets, playing games, flying kites, swimming, wading, climbing trees and other activities.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION AND ENJOY YOUR DAY AT THE GREENWAY.
